Sustainable village Development project: Bamboo Craft Making

30/09/2019

Bamboo is the naturally and fastly growing plant species in the Satpura ranges. Bamboo stem wood has so many uses for the local peoples. Ranging from hut, domestic materials, agricultural, fishing, hinting articles and decorative articles are made from Bamboo wood. These are more ecofriendly and alternative to the plastic and metallic articles. So the use of Bamboo should be more often. For that Workshop on Bamboo craft was organized by Department of Botany. Local craftsman Sunya Padvi, Ramesh Padvi demonstrated the article making to the students. About 55 students participated in the workshop. Dr Haribhau Pawar and Prof Anil V. Shinde conducted the workshop under the guidance of Prin. Dr. H. M. Patil.
